George Hall, the ignorant looking strangwho was arrested Saturday afternoon for being drunk and creating a disturbance in a bath house at 1023 Main street and was later ordered held for investigation by Chief Vallius, has been identified as one of the men who held up the Louisville & of the men who held up the Louisville & Nashville passenger train at Celera, Ala,, on the night of April 3, and robbed the Southern Express measurement of $3,000. His right name, he admitted last night, is Gus Hyall. He would not give his residence. When Hall was searched at Central po-lice station Saturday after being arrested for drunkenness, three revolvers were tak-en from him. He had two Winchester rifles in a bundle, besides a hundred rounds of cartridges. These attracted the attenof cartriages. Tallins, and when Hall had become thoroughly sober. Chief Vallins had a talk with him. He told so many different stories that the chief had him held for investigation. From the class of Hall's fireurns, the chief drew the conlusion that he was a train robber. Telegrams were sent to all the leading cities of the country giving a partial description of Hall. Yesterday Frank Murray, superintendent of the Pinkertons at Chicago, wired Chief Vallins that Hall was wanted for robbing the Southern Pacific Express Company, and to wire to them at Memphis. Chief Vallins did so, and yesterday received a telegram from G. W. Agee, of the Southern Express Company at Memphis, giving an exact description of Hall, even to the clothes he wore on the night after the robbery. He wore a faded navy blue coat and vest, and took them off when he nurchased new clothing here Saturday. The discarded coat and vest were found in Hall's grip. Hall has two marked sears on his chim, one on the left side being a well defined half-moon, which is given in the description. He also shows a large proportion of the whites of his eyes. Chief Vallins says he never saw a description better filled out than Hall does the description given of the express robber. Hall had 881 when arrested. This was attached by the Southern Express Company yesterday. It was in the hands of the police. Officer McAnany, who arrested Hall in Mrs. La Force's buthroom Saturday, will receive $300 reward for the arrest. will receive $300 reward for the ar-

On the night of the robbery Hall and a pal bourded the Louisville & Nashville train, and, working their way to the express car held up the messenger. Frank Moore. The safe was opened, and $3.000 taken. The robbers wore no masks, and the messenger was able to give the police a good description of them. After the robbery Hall and his pal "planted" $2.400 of the money.

bery Hall and his pal "planted" $2,400 of the money.

They were located by the Pinkerton people, but the arrest was postponed for fear they would not give up the money. A close watch was kept on Hall and his pal, and on June 22, they dug up their money and divided it. Hall then disappeared, and the next heard of him was when he was picked up here by accident Saturday, Chief Vallins says Hall's pal will be under attest inside of twenty-four hours.

The identity of Hall came out last night when he acknowledged to Chief Vallins that his nome was Gus Hyatt.

Hyatt was subjected to a rigid cross-examination by Chief Vallins. After a time be acknowledged that he was in the robbery of the Southern Express Company at Celera, Ala. He claims he has been in several train tobberies in Tennessee and Alabama in the past year, but had made up his mind to quit after the robbery three months ago. Hyatt says he has only been operating a year, and always with a small crowd, He is 26 years old and looks every link a farmer.

crowd. He is 26 years old and looks every inch a farmer.

Chief Vallins received a telegram from Superintendent Ages, of the Southern Express Company, at Memphis, last night, saying he would arrive in Memphis to-day for the purpose of taking Hyatt back to Memphis. Hyatt had a ticket over the Chicago & Alton road to Bloomington, lit, when arrested. The police think his intention was to board an Alton train here and riding out a few miles, meet a pal and rob the train. William S. Cain, head detective for the Alton road, had a talk with Hyatt yesterday evening. He stated that Hyatt had no connection with the Blue cut robberies.

A warrant charging Hyatt with being a fugitive from justice was sworn out in Justice Case's court yesterday. This step was taken to prevent liyatt attempting a release on haleas corpus proceedings. Chief Vailine stated last night that the rewards for Hyatt may reach $1.00. The money will all go to Officer McAnany.

AFTER THE BROADWAY GANG. Four of Its Tough Members Go to the Workhouse in Default of Rendy Cash. The session of police court yesterday was the longest this year. Seventy cases were tried, most of which were of a minor natried, most of which were of a minor nature. The Broadway gaug met with the greatest trouble it has had for some time. Tom Conners and Tom Carroll, two of its members, who were arrested for holding up a negro on Saturday night, were fined 50 each for vagrancy. John Royle was fined 55 for creating a disturbance in a Wainut street house. Tom Moran and Tom Jeyes, both members of the Broadway garg, were arrested, yesterday for fast driving and abusing the horse. They were fined 50 each on a dual charge of disorderly conduct and crucity to animals. They could not pay their fines and with Conners and Carroll went to the workhouse.

Mattie Lucas, colored, who was arrested for steading $20 from William Tolle, of 121 McGee, was fixed $25. Tolle failed to appear against the woman and the charge was charged to frequenting rooms for immoral purposes.

J. A. Melfond, who was arrested for best cal purposes.

Policeman Loses a Leg.

Policeman Loses a Leg.

The right leg of Patrolman Peter Green was amputated above the knee at the city hospital Monday afternoon. The patient is doing well and will recover from the operation.

Green is a colored man and quite large. Seven weeks ago, with Officer McFadden, he gave chase to a chicken thief named Howard, on lighteenth street near Lydia avenue. During the chase, Officer Green ruptured an artery in his leg. Every effort was made to save the leg, but amputation was finally necessary to save his life.

Back in Jail Again.

Will Thomas, who was shot by a special officer several weeks ago while making way with a sack of stolen brasses, was removed yestserday from the city hospital to the county jail. Thomas was very badly wounded, and it was thought that he might not recover. He was sent to the hospital May 12, and is now so far recovered that he can be locked up.

Pickpockets Will Be Vagged.

Tom Reynolds and A. P. Morris, alias "Erglish Bob," alias "Prince of Wales," the pickpockets captured by Detectives Halpin and Sanderson at Fitteenth and Holmes streets Monday, will be "vagged" and sent to the workhouse to-day. Their pictures were taken for the rogues gallery yesterday.

Evans Used "Knucks" on His Wife. Jim Evans, an ex-prizelighter, went home yesterday afternoon and in a drunken fit knocked his wife down with a pair of brass knucks and kicked her in the face and body. Evans has been fined many times for beating his wife. The police were unable to locate him yesterday.

Notes From the Stations.

Bruce Blair was arrested at Eighteenth street and Flora avenue yesterday while trying to dispose of some harness which the police believe was stolen.

Mrs. Eva Decker, who lives in the East bettoms near the Rex mills, has asked the police to find her husband, John Decker, who went to her house Monday and carried away her 4-months-old babe. Jim Hogan, arrested Monday afternoon for heing drunk and begging at Twelfth and Washington streets, was sent to the city hospital yesterday and assigned to the lisane ward. Hogan is crazy from drink.

JUDGE HENRY'S RELIC.

Was Dropped by a Blushing Bride and Hangs in His Private Office on the Wall.

Judge John W. Henry, of the circuit court, has an interesting relic, which was hung upon the wall of his private office yesterday. Judge Henry is a chivalrous gentleman of the old school, and a plain Democrat, who has scorned mere honorary titles all his life. He would not be a knight of the garter for the world, if he had to surrender the dignity of a Missouri Dem-

But the garter itself is another thing. It hangs in his private office, and by it hangs a tale. The lady in the case came from Denver. She was accompanied by a beatific groom-elect, and they wanted Judge Henry or an Episcopal elergyman to marry them. They took Judge Henry and he married them. Before the ceremony and while he bridal procession was entering the room, the blushing bride lost the relic that now hangs in the Judge's private office.

Harry A. Alms wants Thomas Conway to give him $10,000 because Conway's black-smith shop at 1332 and 1334 Grand avenue fell on him one day last April and crippled him for life. The accident was a very pecultur one. Alms was walking along the street and when passing in front of the blacksmith shop the entire front suddenly fell outward and buried Alms beneath it. There was no extraordinary wind blowing at the time.

Exchange Case Not Decided Yet.

Exchange Case Not Decided Yet.

Judge Philips did not decide the case brought by the government against the Traders' Live Stock exchange to force it to discontinue business on the plan it has adopted, yesterday, as expected. When court was in session he announced that he had not had time to complete the investigation of the case, and would allow it to go over until he went to Colorado and would complete the ruling on the question there. It will, therefore, not be filed until he returns from his summer outing, which will be about six weeks.
